

OUR TEAM

Jessica Thompson

Senior Associate

Phone: +61 2 9231 7069

Mobile: +61 (0) 414 236 339

Email: jthompson@ypol.com.au

Jessica holds a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Media and Communications from the University of Wollongong.

She was admitted to practice as a solicitor in February 2010.

Jessica joined YPOL in 2012 with a diverse background in law having previously worked for five and a half years at a boutique law firm.

Jessica has developed strong litigation expertise in conducting a wide range of proceedings in all jurisdictions in New South Wales including in particular the Supreme Court and Federal Court. She also has experience in conducting proceedings in the Supreme Court of Queensland.

Jessica's areas of experience include:

- Insurance, professional indemnity and general liability
- Commercial litigation and dispute resolution
- Debt recovery

Examples of Jessica's experience include:

- assisting in the conduct of trust proceedings in the Supreme Court of New South Wales (Hancock and Rinehart v Rinehart and Ors [2015] NSWSC 646);
- assisting in the successful defence of a claim for misleading and deceptive conduct in the Federal Court of Australia (Addenbrooke Pty Limited v Duncan (No 6) [2015] FCA 793);
- assisting in the conduct of professional indemnity claims against solicitors and other professionals;
- assisting in the conduct of Federal Court proceedings involving allegations of fraud and misleading and deceptive conduct in the Federal Court of Australia;
- assisting in the conduct of Supreme Court and Federal Court proceedings including interlocutory, final hearing and appeals; and
- initiating and progressing bankruptcy proceedings.

Jessica is a member of the Law Society of New South Wales and the Australian Insurance Law Association.