India was admitted as a solicitor of the Supreme Court of New South Wales in October 2015 and to the Federal Court and the High Court of Australia in October 2018.

India holds a Bachelor of Arts and a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Tasmania.

Prior to joining YPOL, India worked as an associate to judges in both the civil and criminal divisions of the Supreme Court and District Court of New South Wales. Her background also encompasses working as a mental health advocate and as a Native Title intern involving contribution to determination by consent of claims in Western Australia and New South Wales.

India's experience includes:

- assisting with the conduct of professional negligence claims against solicitors;
- assisting with advising insurers in relation to ongoing Federal Court proceedings;
- assisting insurers with the conduct of indemnity disputes.

India is a member of the Law Society of New South Wales, the Intellectual Property Society of Australia and New Zealand, the Australian Professional Indemnity Group, the Association for Women in Insurance and Anglo-Australasian Lawyers Society.
